Pursuant to the Court's Order Appointing Receiver dated June 29, 2020, Kevin Dooley Kent, Receiver, hereby submits this Twelfth Interim Fee Application for the Period April 1, 2023 through June 30, 2023, and moves for approval of payment of fees and expenses invoiced by the Receiver, the Receiver's Counsel (Clark Hill PLC) and the Court-appointed accountant to the Receiver, Alvarez & Marsal Disputes and Investigations, LLC ("the Application").

The balance in the Receivership Accounts as of the close of the twelfth quarter was $7,705,907.28. The Receiver and his Counsel continue to focus their efforts on preserving and maximizing Receivership Assets, with the current foci on pursuing claims informally and through litigation, and evaluating, negotiating and managing claims asserted against the Receivership Estate. The Receiver's Accountants continue to provide forensic and expert support as needed in connection with the pursuit of affirmative claims, assist with quantifying and evaluating claims asserted against the Estate, manage the document repository, perform tax-related services for the Receivership, and support the Receiver in his negotiations with the IRS.

This interim fee application focuses on developments during the twelfth quarter of the Receivership. The Receiver incorporates by reference his prior interim fee applications with respect to events that took place in prior quarters.

I. BACKGROUND

This action involves an investment advisory fraud in connection with which Defendants, Brenda A. Smith (“Brenda Smith” or “Smith”), Broad Reach Capital, LP, Broad Reach Partners, LLC and Bristol Advisors, LLC, are alleged to have raised in excess of $100 million from at least forty (40) investors, based upon false representations regarding trading strategies to be implemented when, in reality, the vast majority of these investments were funneled into unrelated companies, used to pay back other investors, or utilized for personal use. (ECF No. 1). It is estimated that investors are still owed over $60 million in principal. Brenda Smith pled guilty to committing securities fraud in connection with Broad Reach Capital on September 9, 2021, in USA v. Smith, No. 2:20-cr-00475-MCA (D.N.J.). Smith was sentenced to 109 months in prison on May 4, 2022.

On June 29, 2020, this Court appointed Mr. Kent as Receiver to assume control of, marshal, pursue and preserve assets of Defendant, Brenda Smith, and the Receivership Parties¹ (hereinafter “Receivership Assets” or “Receivership Estate”). Receivership Order, Whereas ¶ 3; ¶¶ 1–3, 5 (ECF No. 22). The

¹ The Receivership Parties include Broad Reach Capital, LP, Broad Reach Partners, LLC, Bristol Advisors, LLC, BA Smith & Associates LLC, Bristol Advisors LP, CV Brokerage, Inc., Clearview Distribution Services LLC, CV International Investments Limited, CV International Investments PLC, CV Investments LLC, CV Lending LLC, CV Minerals LLC, BD of Louisiana, LLC, TA1, LLC, FFCC Ventures LLC, Prico Market LLC, GovAdv Funding LLC, Elm Street Investments, LLC, Investment Consulting LLC, and Tempo Resources LLC

Receivership Order authorized the Receiver to retain the law firm of Conrad O’Brien PC—now Clark Hill PLC (“Clark Hill” or “Law Firm”)² and Alvarez & Marsal Disputes and Investigations, LLC (“Alvarez” or “Accountant”) as his counsel and accountant, respectively (collectively “Retained Personnel”). Id., ¶ 71.

The Receivership Order provides that, subject to the Court’s approval, the Receiver and his Retained Personnel are entitled to reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement from the Receivership Estate. Receivership Order, ¶ 72. The Court-approved fee schedules, which provide substantial discounts from the standard rates of the Law Firm and the Accountant, and which hourly fee rates the Court has already found to be reasonable, are as follows:

Receiver
Name		Rate
Kevin Dooley Kent		$510.00
The Law Firm
Name/Position		Rate
Andrew Gallinaro, Partner		$365.00 ³
Associate		$240.00 - $330.00
Paraprofessional		$165.00
The Accountant
Name/Position		Rate

² On January 17, 2023, the Court entered an order authorizing the Receiver to change his retained Law Firm to Clark Hill in light of his counsel’s February 1, 2023 move to Clark Hill. (ECF Nos. 219, 223).

³ On August 11, 2023, the Court entered an Order appointing Robin S. Weiss as counsel for the Receiver, at a rate of $365.00 per hour. (ECF No. 266). This change will be reflected in the Receiver’s next interim fee application.

Michael Shanahan, Managing Director	$550.00
Managing Director/Senior Director	$550.00 - $725.00
Directors/Managers	$425.00 - $525.00
Sr. Associates/Associates	$275.00 - $375.00

Id., ¶¶ 79-83. The Receiver, Law Firm and Accountant have not sought increases in these hourly rates since their appointment three years ago, but anticipate seeking approval for a rate increase in the near future.⁴

Pursuant to the Receivership Order and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission’s Billing Instructions for Receivers (“Billing Instructions”), the Receiver, Counsel and the Accountant are to be paid their reasonable fees and expenses out of the Receivership Estate. Upon Order of this Court approving such Application, the Receiver may pay up to eighty percent (80%) of the compensation/professional fees and expenses of the applicants.⁵ Id., ¶¶ 75, 81, 84.

⁴ However, Robin S. Weiss obtained a rate increase in connection with her appointment as lead counsel on August 11, 2023, for a rate equal to the rate applicable to prior lead counsel, Andrew S. Gallinaro. (ECF No. 266).

⁵ At the close of the Receivership, the Receiver will file a final fee application for reasonable compensation and expense reimbursement, describing in detail the costs and benefits associated with all litigation and other actions pursued by the Receiver during the Receivership. Although Interim Fee Applications are subject to a twenty percent (20%) holdback, “[t]he total amounts held back during the course of the receivership will be paid out at the discretion of the Court as part of the final fee application submitted at the close of the receivership.” Id., ¶¶ 74-75.

The Receiver previously submitted this Application to the SEC, in accordance with the Billing Instructions and the Receivership Order. The SEC has advised the Receiver that it does not have any objection to the Application.

2. Storage & Sale of Belongings and Data

Stephenson's Auction sold three (3) of Brenda Smith's rugs during this quarter, resulting in net proceeds of $1,980.00 for the Receivership Estate. In total, the Receiver has recovered $14,188.20 in net proceeds from the sale of personal property through eighteen (18) auctions over the course of the Receivership, after payment of commissions and related expenses.¹³

The Receiver continues to hold professional equipment and the original books and records of the Receivership Parties. Brenda Smith arranged for the pick-up of personal, sentimental items without significant resale value on April 6, 2023.

3. Louisiana Property

Despite aggressive marketing efforts and numerous price reductions, including a reduction to $495,000.00 on August 25, 2022, the Receiver was unable to secure a private buyer for the Louisiana property owned by BD of Louisiana, LLC (“the Property”) at a price which would satisfy the requirements of 28 U.S.C. § 2001(b) and cover the balance of the mortgage held by b1BANK. Accordingly, on June 30, 2023, the Receiver entered into a Creditor Agreement with b1BANK, authorizing it to initiate mortgage foreclosure proceedings against BD of Louisiana, LLC in Louisiana, subject to this Court’s approval. The Receiver filed a Motion to Permit b1BANK to Initiate Mortgage Foreclosure Proceedings and Proceed with the Public Sale of Real Property Owned by BD of Louisiana, LLC on July 18, 2023 (ECF No. 259).

¹³ Gross sale proceeds to date total $19,516.50, which are offset by commissions and other related expenses totaling $5,328.30 to date.

As set forth in that motion, a limited lifting of the stay to enable b1BANK to initiate foreclosure proceedings is in the best interest of the Receivership Estate because (a) the Receiver has already exhausted his efforts to privately sell the Property pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2001(b), without success; (b) if the Receiver has to proceed with a public sale pursuant to Section 2001(a), the Receivership Estate will be forced to incur additional upfront costs and run the risk of selling the Property for less than the mortgage balance; (c) the Property holds no beneficial purpose for the Receivership Estate and is only costing the Estate money in the form of administrative costs while interest on the mortgage continues to increase; (d) the proposed sale through the foreclosure process includes the potential that the Receivership Estate will make a recovery from the public sale; and (e) the arrangement will eliminate the risk that the Receivership Estate could owe any deficiency to b1BANK if the Property ultimately sells for less than the mortgage balance.

The Motion was granted on July 19, 2023. (ECF No. 260). B1Bank initiated executory proceedings on or about August 11, 2023.

4. Private Investments and Ownership Interests

The Receiver continues to attempt to resolve and/or liquidate Smith's interest in Bluwater Holdings Corp. through her entity Rocmen Holdings, LLC, as well as a potential interest in a gold mine as a result of payments made to Calais

Management Corporation. If these interests cannot be liquidated or bought out to the Receiver's satisfaction, the Receiver may seek to initiate litigation against the entities involved in order to protect the interests of the Receivership Estate.

The Receiver received an additional $10,450.00 distribution from OTAF (Holgate) LLC on May 1, 2023, bringing total distributions on Smith's $100,000.00 investment to $163,627.52 through the close of the twelfth quarter. After the close of the quarter, the Receiver received an additional $4,000.00 distribution on July 17, 2023.

5. Investigation of Overseas Bank Accounts

Aside from Cidel Bank & Trust Inc. ("Cidel Bank"), the overseas banks to which the Receiver sent Brenda Smith's signed consent directive have failed to respond to the Receiver's communications and document requests. After the close of the twelfth quarter, Cidel Bank agreed to return the funds held in that overseas account to the Receiver.

6. Investigation, Development, Pursuit and Settlement of Claims

The Receiver has filed a total of twelve (12) lawsuits on behalf of the Receivership Estate so far, and has issued demands and/or continues to negotiate with several others. The Receiver anticipates filing additional lawsuits in the near future if those additional claims cannot be resolved.

In total, ten (10) pre-litigation settlements and three (3) litigation settlements have been reached as of June 30, 2023, valued at over $3.1 million.

7. Financial Account Reconstruction and Accounting Support

The Receiver's Accountants at Alvarez and Marsal continue to support the Receiver's efforts. The Accountants' financial account reconstruction allowed them to make determinations regarding investor capital account activity, and they prepared supporting documentation distributed to investors in connection with the claims process. They continue to support the Receiver in evaluating and quantifying disputed investor and creditor claims.

The Accountants have continued to support the Receivers' demands issued to, and negotiations with, third-party recipients of investor funds, and their work has allowed the Receiver to initiate and pursue litigation against various individuals and entities on behalf of the Receivership Estate. The Accountants are available to the Receiver to provide assistance with specific issues that may arise in connection with certain claims and/or lawsuits the Receiver is pursuing, and to provide necessary litigation and/or expert support.

8. Receivership Taxes

The Receiver is in the process of negotiating with the Internal Revenue Service regarding the $1.3 million claim it has asserted against the Receivership Estate. Meanwhile, Alvarez and Marsal continues to provide tax-related services to the Receivership Estate, and will be preparing a plan for the ultimate dissolution of most, if not all, of the Receivership Parties.

9. Anticipated Closure of Case

Given the Receiver's continued investigation and pursuit of litigation, the claims asserted by the IRS, the pendency of the Creditor Claims Proceedings and need for those to conclude before any distribution can be proposed and order of preference adjudicated, and the extended payout schedules associated with certain settlement agreements, the Receiver does not have a projected date by which he expects the Receivership to close.

C. Summary of Creditor Claims Proceedings

Pursuant to the Court's adjusted briefing schedule, the Receiver re-filed the First Omnibus Claims Motion, all responses, and the Receiver's Reply on July 13, 2023. (ECF Nos. 254 – 458).

At the time the Receiver initially filed his First Omnibus Claims Motion, the Receiver had received and processed a total of thirty-seven (37) Investor Creditor Claims totaling $69,373,769.53,¹⁴ and fifteen (15) Non-Investor Creditor claims totaling $86,921,909.87, for total claims of $156,295,679.40.¹⁵ However, the ¹⁴ For purposes of this filing, this includes investors who invested money in any of the Receivership Parties, not just Broad Reach Capital or TA1.

¹⁵ This includes a claim from the IRS. These numbers exclude claims that were withdrawn prior to the filing of the First Omnibus Claims Motion. They also exclude claims for amounts that were submitted after the Claims Bar Date.

Receiver has since resolved the disputed creditor claim of Southern Minerals Group. The Receiver has now confirmed the creditor claim of Southern Minerals Group in the amount of $160,000.00, which negotiated amount represents the claim amount that will be attributed to SMG for purposes of a future distribution process when the Receiver proposes a plan of distribution to the Court.¹⁶

With the resolution of Southern Minerals Group's claim—previously asserted in the amount of $21,929,259.00—the amount of total claims against the Receivership Estate has been reduced to $134,526,420.40, and the total amount of non-investor creditor claims has been reduced to $65,152,650.87.

D. Receivership Assets

1. Receivership Bank Account

As of the close of twelfth quarter on June 30, 2023, the balance in the Receivership Accounts was $7,705,907.28, broken down as follows: $7,291,608.88 in the WSFS Trust/Savings Account, $187,384.96 in WSFS Checking Account, and $226,913.44 in the Bank of America Account.

2. Settlements

The Receiver is actively negotiating potential settlements with several other individuals and/or entities. Many of these potential claims are subject to tolling agreements. Additional funds are owed pursuant to settlement agreements with Jeffrey Bydalek and MCITC/Carol Johnston, which featured extended payout schedules. The next Bydalek payment is due in December 2023. MCITC and Carol Johnston have already breached their settlement agreement with the Receiver, but recently filed for bankruptcy. Accordingly, the Receiver's claims to those funds will have to be resolved through the bankruptcy proceedings.

3. Cryptocurrency

The Receiver has learned that at least some cryptocurrency was distributed to an investor, purportedly as a partial in-kind redemption on their investment. The amount and value of the cryptocurrency transferred is being investigated.

4. Private Investments

The Receiver is in the process of attempting to liquidate Smith's purported interests in Bluwater Holdings Corp. and the Calais Gold Mine through a buyout and/or negotiated settlement. The Receiver is prepared to initiate litigation if any proposed resolution fails to appropriately compensate the Receivership for Smith's interest and/or the Receivership Assets transferred. The Receivership continues to receive distributions on Smith's $100,000.00 investment in OTAF (Holgate) LLC. The potential value of Smith's one (1) share in CMCC Development Corp. ("CMCC") is still being investigated.

5. Receivables and Promissory Notes

As of the close of the twelfth quarter, the Receiver's continued pursuit of litigation included (1) a promissory note from Sunny Ocean 699, LLC and Agostinho Calcada, individually, for over $1.5 million; and (2) a promissory note from Rose & Thorn Cowlitz, LLC ("Rose & Thorn"), which received nearly $7.5 million from Receivership Parties¹⁷.

6. Louisiana Properties

The Receiver reached an agreement with the mortgaging bank for the BD of Louisiana Property for the sale of the property through an executory process, which was approved by the Court on July 19, 2023. (ECF Nos. 259, 260).

7. Additional Bank Accounts and Funds

ICBCFS continues to hold approximately $444,213.08 in two clearing accounts for CV Brokerage, pursuant to a Stipulation. (ECF No. 30). The Receiver has addressed ICBCFS' claimed security and priority interest in these funds in his First Omnibus Claims Motion (ECF Nos. 254, 256, 258).

As of February 22, 2023, Cidel Bank held an account in the name of CV International Investments, Ltd., which had the equivalent market value of approximately $12,821.80 USD. Cidel was continuing to charge quarterly management fees on the account of between $11.23 and $11.34 per quarter since the entry of the Receivership Order. On July 18, 2023, the Receiver requested that Cidel cease charging management fees on the account given the Receivership Order, Consent Directive, and the Receiver's numerous requests for the turnover of these funds, and reiterated his request for the return of those funds. Cidel Bank thereafter agreed to reverse the management fees and to return these assets to the Receivership Estate. Cidel Bank transferred the updated balance of $12,957.22 to the Receiver on July 21, 2023 which, less a $70 wire transfer fee, resulted in the repatriation of $12,887.22 in Receivership Assets.

8. Personal Property

In total, the Receiver has recovered $14,188.20 in net proceeds from the sale of personal property through eighteen (18) auctions over the course of the Receivership, after deduction of commissions and related expenses. Additionally, Smith arranged for the pick-up of her personal/sentimental belongings on April 6, 2023. Further, as previously reported, the Receiver has not been able to locate viable options for the sale of computer equipment retrieved from the Equinix data center.

E. Liquidated and Unliquidated Claims

The Receiver has filed twelve (12) lawsuits over the course of the Receivership. Three of those lawsuits are settled and closed – Kent v. MCITC, et al., 2:21-cv-13104 (D.N.J.), Kent v. Hooper, et al., No. 2:22-cv-01876 (D.N.J.), and Kent v. Bydalek, et al., 2:22-cv-01811 (D.N.J.). However, two of the defendants in the MCITC case, Medical Construction Industrial Training Center, LLC (“MCITC”) and Carol Johnson, with whom the Receiver settled his claims, have failed to fulfill their full payment obligations and have filed for bankruptcy. The Receiver submitted his claim in the MCITC bankruptcy case on June 28, 2023, seeking payment of the remaining $100,000.00 owed, plus interest, pursuant to the terms of the settlement agreement approved by this Court. See In re Medical Construction Industrial Training Center, LLC, 23-bk-13260-JNP (Bankr. D.N.J.). Ms. Johnston’s bankruptcy action is still in its infancy, with a claims deadline of August 31, 2023. See In re Carol Ford Johnston Olive, 23-15398-ABA (Bankr. D.N.J.).

The Receiver’s Fourth Motion for Permission to Initiate Litigation on Behalf of the Receivership Estate (ECF No. 220) was granted on April 27, 2023 (ECF No. 242).

The fees and expenses included herein were incurred in the best interests of the Receivership Estate. With the exception of the Billing Instructions and the proposed Contingency Fee Agreement for the pursuit of litigation which was submitted under seal in support of the Receiver's Second, Third and Fourth Motions for Permission to Initiate Litigation, (ECF Nos. 98, 99, 147, 148, 220, 242), the Receiver has not entered into any other agreements concerning the amount of compensation paid or to be paid from the Receivership Estate, or any sharing thereof.

Significantly, in accordance with the Contingency Fee Agreement, the significant amount of work the Receiver and his Counsel have performed in connection with the lawsuits the Receiver sought permission to file in his Second, Third and Fourth Motions to Initiate Litigation have not been, and will not be, billed to the Receivership on an hourly basis.²¹ Rather, the Receiver and his Counsel will only receive payment in connection with those lawsuits if and when a settlement or judgment is obtained, pursuant to the terms set forth in the Contingency Fee Agreements.

IV. REQUEST FOR COMPENSATION FOR FEES AND EXPENSES

This Court has the power to appoint a receiver and to award the receiver fees for his services and for expenses incurred by the Receiver in the performance of his duties. See Donovan v. Robbins, 588 F. Supp. 1268, 1272 (N.D. Ill. 1984) (“[T]he receiver diligently and successfully discharged the responsibilities placed upon him by the Court and is entitled to reasonable compensation for his efforts.”); see also Securities & Exch. Comm’n v. Elliot, 953 F. Supp. 1560 (11th Cir. 1992) (noting that the receiver is entitled to compensation for faithful performance of his duties). The case law on equity receiverships sets forth the standards for approving receiver compensation and the fees and expenses for the receiver's counsel. The District Court has discretion to determine compensation to be awarded to a court-appointed equity receiver and his counsel and "may consider all of the factors involved in a particular receivership in determining the appropriate fee." Gaskill v. Gordon, 27 F.3d 248, 253 (7th Cir. 1994). Many authorities provide "convenient guidelines," but in the final analysis, "the unique fact situation renders direct reliance on precedent impossible." Securities & Exch. Comm'n v. W.L. Moody & Co., 374 F. Supp. 465, 480 (S.D. Tex. 1974), aff'd, 519 F. 2d 1087 (5th Cir. 1975).

In allowing counsel fees in Securities Act receiverships, "[t]he court will consider . . . the complexity of problems faced, the benefit to the receivership estate, the quality of work performed, and the time records presented." Securities & Exch. Comm'n v. Fifth Ave. Coach Lines, Inc., 364 F. Supp. 1220, 1222 (S.D.N.Y. 1973); see also United States v. Code Prods., 362 F.2d 669, 673 (3d Cir. 1966) (noting that court should consider the time, labor and skill required—but not necessarily expended—the fair value of such time, labor and skill, the degree of activity, the dispatch with which the work is conducted and the result obtained). "[R]esults are always relevant." Securities & Exch. Comm'n v. Elliot, 953 F.2d 1560, 1577 (11th Cir. 1992) (quoting Moody, 374 F. Supp. at 480). However, a good result may take a form other than a bare increase in monetary value. See id. ("Even though a receiver may not have increased, or prevented a decrease in, the value of the collateral, if a receiver reasonably and diligently discharges his duties, he is entitled to compensation.”).

Another “basic consideration is the nature and complexity of the legal problems confronted and the skill necessary to resolve them.” Moody, 374 F. Supp. at 485. Moreover, “[t]ime spent cannot be ignored.” Id. at 483. While the Receiver and his Accountants continue to expend significant time locating and recovering assets on behalf of the Receivership Estate in this complex case, the Receiver and his Retained Personnel are now focusing a majority of their efforts in this action on analyzing and resolving claims asserted against the Receivership Estate, in the interest of moving closer to an interim distribution. Further, their fees have continued to remain lower for the third year of the Receivership as compared to the prior two years, consistent with the Receiver’s prediction that fees would be front-loaded. See Gordon v. Dadante, 2008 WL 1805787 at *11 (N.D. Ohio 2008) (recognizing that, with receiverships, as is “common in cases of this nature, the bulk of the effort—and expense—is frontloaded.”).

Under these standards, the Receiver has adequately demonstrated that the amount of fees requested is appropriate. The Receiver, his Counsel and Accountants acted quickly to take control of the Receivership Entities and to prevent the further dissipation of assets. The liquid cash on hand has increased significantly since the inception of the Receivership, when the existence of substantial valuable assets was in serious question. The amounts at issue in this case are substantial, where the investment scheme involved approximately $100 million during its operation, at least $1.5 billion of financial transactions occurred in accounts controlled by Smith over its last several years, and it is currently estimated that investors are still owed approximately $60 million in principal.

The issues being addressed by the Receiver, his Counsel and Accountants are extremely complex and involve the investigation of widespread, international fraud perpetrated across a complex web of various entities managed or controlled by Smith over a multi-year period. Following numerous bizarre transactions involving restaurants, property development projects, mineral mining, extraction and transport endeavors, and overseas companies—most of which caused material losses to the Receivership Parties—as well as what appear to be substantial “gifts” to friends and/or colleagues of Smith without any known benefit to the Receivership Parties, the Estate has been left with few assets still in the Receivership Parties’ possession. However, the Receiver remains optimistic that additional material funds can be recovered on behalf of the Receivership Estate, primarily through litigation, or pre-litigation settlement of claims.

This Court has already found that the rates charged by the Receiver and his Counsel and Accountant are reasonable for the experience of the individuals performing the work and in light of the complexity of the work performed, and are consistent with the rates charged for similarly complex work done by other, similarly experienced professionals in this geographic region. Receivership Order, ¶¶ 80, 83. As noted previously, the Receiver and the Law Firm are performing this work at an average discount rate twenty-five percent (25%). The Receiver and his Retained Personnel have not requested that the Court authorize an increase in their approved hourly rates in 2021, 2022, or to date in 2023, resulting in even more significant rate reductions.

The Receiver has attempted to maximize cost savings and administer the Estate as efficiently as possible, by, for example, assigning professionals and paraprofessionals with the lowest billable rate appropriate for the task at issue, which the Accountant has likewise done. The Receiver and his Counsel have extensively utilized non-billing administrative personnel where appropriate. Most significantly, the Receiver and his Law Firm's willingness to pursue litigation under a contingency fee arrangement as set forth in his Second, Third, and Fourth Motions for Permission to Initiate Litigation on Behalf of the Receivership Estate is resulting in significant cost savings for the Estate.

The Receiver and his Retained Professionals' compensation in this matter is subject to the final approval of this Court. The Court should consider that the Receiver as well as his attorneys and accountants have assumed the risk of non-payment and/or substantial delay in payment in accepting the Court appointment, particularly with so little known regarding the amount and availability of Receivership Assets. The risk is even greater with regard to the pursuit of litigation on behalf of the Receivership Estate on a contingency fee basis, in connection with which the Receiver and his Law Firm risk non-payment entirely if the claims are unsuccessful and/or the prospective defendants are judgment-proof.

Based on the foregoing, the Receiver respectfully submits that the compensation sought by the Receiver and his team is wholly warranted.

WHEREFORE, the Receiver respectfully requests that the Court grant the Receiver's Motion for Approval of the Twelfth Interim Fee Application for the Period April 1, 2023 through June 1, 2023, and thereby authorize the following:

1. Payment to Clark Hill PLC in the amount of $6,854.40, as compensation for the Receiver's services performed from April 1, 2023 through June 30, 2023, such payment representing eighty percent (80%) of the Receiver's fees for this quarter;
2. Payment to Clark Hill PLC in the amount of $40,958.00, as compensation for services performed by the Receiver's Counsel from April 1, 2023 through June 30, 2023, such payment representing eighty percent (80%) of its fees for this quarter;
3. Payment to Alvarez & Marsal Disputes and Investigations, LLC in the amount of $47,892.00 as compensation for services performed from April 1, 2023 through June 30, 2023, such payment representing eighty percent (80%) of its fees for this quarter;

4. Payment to Clark Hill PC in the amount of $299.21 for expenses incurred from April 1, 2023 through June 30, 2023, representing eighty percent (80%) of its expenses for this quarter; and

5. Payment to Alvarez & Marsal Disputes and Investigations, LLC, in the amount of $1,835.92 for expenses incurred from April 1, 2023 through June 30, 2023, representing eighty percent (80%) of its expenses for this quarter.

Respectfully submitted,

Notes

[1] In accordance with the Motion of Receiver, Kevin D. Kent, Esquire, to Approve a Settlement Resolving the Receiver's April 9, 2021 Motion to Determine Ownership of Taylor Trading, LLC Account (ECF No. 130) ("Taylor Trading Motion") and the Order Confirming Ownership of Taylor Trading, LLC Account Proceedings (ECF No. 134), the Receiver arranged for the transfer of 50% of the balance of the Taylor Trading, LLC bank account maintained with PNC Bank ("Taylor Trading Account") to investor Surefire Dividend Capture, LP ("Surefire") on November 19, 2021. Surefire had filed claims against, inter alia, Scott Koppenheffer in a lawsuit it filed in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania captioned Surefire Dividend Capture, LP v. Smith et al., No. 2:19-cv-04088 (E.D. Pa.) (the "Surefire Action"). Surefire agreed to resolve its claims against Mr. Koppenheffer in exchange for, inter alia, an assignment of Mr. Koppenheffer's rights (if any) to the Taylor Trading Account. The Receiver and Surefire then agreed to resolve the Taylor Trading Motion by splitting the balance in the Taylor Trading Account, which amount will be deducted from any future distribution made by the Receiver to Surefire. This settlement resulted in a meaningful recovery for the Receivership Estate while eliminating the risk and cost of litigating the issue of account ownership with Mr. Koppenheffer and/or Surefire.

Investments, Real and Personal Property

As described more fully in the Receiver's Twelfth Quarterly Status Report, the Receiver is in the process of identifying and liquidating all the investments, real and personal property of the Receivership Parties.

In addition to the transactions reflected within the Standardized Fund Accounting Report, the Receiver anticipates recovering future distributions related to Brenda Smith's personal investment in OTAF LLC.

The Receivership has an interest in two parcels in Tangipahoa Parish, Louisiana, owned by BD of Louisiana, LLC ("BD of Louisiana Property"), which are subject to a mortgage with an outstanding principal balance of approximately $345,000. Due to an inability to secure a private buyer for the BD of Louisiana Property, the Receiver entered into a Creditor Agreement with b1BANK, authorizing it to initiate mortgage foreclosure proceedings against BD of Louisiana, LLC in Louisiana, subject to this Court's approval.

STATEMENT IN LIEU OF BRIEF PURSUANT TO L.CIV.R. 7.1(d)(4)

Pursuant to Local Civil Rule 7.1(d)(4), the undersigned, on behalf of the Receiver, Kevin Dooley Kent, hereby submits this Statement in lieu of the submission of a formal brief in support of the Motion for Approval of Twelfth Interim Fee Application for the Period April 1, 2023 through June 30, 2023. Inasmuch as the attached Interim Fee Application complies with the Billing Instructions for Receivers in Civil Actions Commenced by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and otherwise satisfies the requirements for Interim Fee Applications as set forth in this Court's June 29, 2020 Order Appointing Receiver, and contains all information and documentation required by the SEC as well as legal argument in support of the Interim Fee Application, and until any opposition to the Motion is filed, it is respectfully suggested that any additional, formal brief in support of the Motion and attached Application would be duplicative and unnecessary at this time.

Respectfully submitted,
